DAUGHERTY BUSINESS SOLUTIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN BATTLE OF THE CORPORATE BANDS Event benefits Music for Lifelong Achievement

ST. LOUIS, MO – November 3, 2008 – Not For A Billion, The Daugherty Party Band, will rock the Sheldon for charity on Wednesday, November 12, 2008. Daugherty Business Solutions' corporate band will join The Just In Time Band, Wite Lite from MasterCard Worldwide Fidelity Investments, and oneinhead from Switch in a Battle of the Corporate Bands to benefit Music for Lifelong Achievement. Celebrity judges will choose the best bands and include: Patrick Murphy from KETC, Dan Durchholz from Post-Dispatch, and Rich Dalton (Radio Rich) from KHITS. The event starts at 7:30 p.m. and tickets are $10 at the door or in advance through Metrotix.

Music For Lifelong Achievement is a non-profit based at the Sheldon Concert Hall in St. Louis, Missouri. The organization seeks donations of used and new musical instruments and donates the instruments to school and community music programs serving disadvantaged young people. The organization also raises funds for instrument repair and musical accessories.

Daugherty formed its corporate band in 2000 and has eight regular members with occasional guest members. "We are really excited about helping out this charity," said band leader and company president Ron Daugherty. "We love the idea of playing for charity. With school budgets being cut, many young people can't afford to participate in band. We want to do what we can to help change that situation."
